

I strongly support Indiana's laws for opt-out registry of my home number to prevent unwanted telemarketing calls. My quality of life has improved markedly since the law went into effect. Indiana should be permitted to govern itself and protect itself in this way. Please do not undercut this power with federal preemption.